

PETER DERIG EXCELLENCE AWARD

Australian Traditional-Medicine Society

PETER DERIG EXCELLENCE AWARD

Peter Derig - one of the great pioneers of natural medicine, inspiring teacher, practitioner and supporter of ATMS passed away in early 2013.

Peter was a shining light, his thinking was ahead of its time, and he was a true professional. Peter was an adorable man, friend to all and loved by many. Never too busy to offer a hand or a positive word, he was a compassionate Practitioner who cared deeply about his clients. Peter was the founder of Health Schools International and via his courses trained many successful practitioners. Peter was a founding member of ATMS and the Natural Medicine profession in Australia. In September 2011 Peter was a guest speaker at the ATMS AGM and received his award into the ATMS Hall of Fame.

Peter has left us now but his legacy will continue in our hearts and minds and through this annual award.

Selection criteria

The awards will be open to students from colleges accredited by ATMS.

The award will be presented to an outstanding Nutritional medicine student.

The student will be acknowledged for clinical nutrition, clinical ability and academic achievement.

Presentation

The winner of the award will be notified of their award to be presented at the AGM.

Additionally the winner will be presented with a cheque for $500 from ATMS.

Who Can Nominate?

Nomination is by College lecturer or clinic supervisor.

Nominations should outline how the student has demonstrated excellence in the area of study including clinical training.

Australian Traditional-Medicine Society

PETER DERIG EXCELLENCE AWARD

APPLICATON FORM

Name of Nominee:
College attending:
Email:		Phone:
Name of Nominator:
Brief description of words).	how the student has demo	nstrated excellence (100